Four Things Never Satisfied

“There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, ‘It is enough’; the grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, ‘it is enough,’ (Proverbs 30:15-16).

In Romans 15:4 Paul said, “For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning.” God intended, then, that we learn precious spiritual truths from every bleeding sacrifice offered in the Old Testament as well as the New. God wants us to glean hidden truths from all the word of God, even though we are under the New Testament today. God intends to convey a message to our hearts from these four things.

(1). The Grave

What a greedy monster death is! Thousands have been swallowed up, and still its mouth is open to devour the sons of men. Death stalks up and down the land, caring not whether you are young or old, black or white, rich or poor, Jew or Gentile, prepared or unprepared. It even snatches a baby from a mother’s arms, and leaves little children orphaned and crying for mother. I think if I were Death, I would pass you by. I believe the grave must have heaved a sigh of protest when Enoch was translated (Gen. 5:24) and when Elijah went to Heaven in a whirlwind (2 Kings 2:11). “Oh, thou wicked monster, wilt thou never be satisfied?” No, not until the Lord shall come to destroy the last enemy, which is death (I Cor. 15:25-26). Make no mistake about it, death will not pass you by. Six feet of ground awaits you. Hebrews 9:17 states “It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.”

If the grave is never satisfied, then it argues for preparation. “Prepare to meet thy God” (Amos 4:12), is the admonition of the scripture. 2). The Barren Womb Child-bearing is the natural desire of married women. It was true among the women of Israel. Every Jewish woman hoped that she might be the mother of a male child. Hannah is a good example. How grieved she was because of her barrenness. She wept and refused to eat because the Lord had shut up her womb (1 Samuel 1:7). In bitterness of soul she prayed unto the Lord, and so intense was her prayer that Eli thought her to be drunk. Think, too of Rachel, one of Jacob’s wives. She was barren while Leah was fruitful. “When Rachel saw Jacob with no children, she envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die” (Genesis 30:1). What a vehement desire. It is abnormal when a child of God does not desire to see others saved. When Andrew found Christ “He first findeth his own brother... and brought him unto Jesus” (John 1:41-42). How abnormal and how disgraceful we are then, if we are not winning souls to Christ.

(3). The Earth That Is Not Filled With Water

The earth is always crying, give, give. Strangely enough, this symbol of the dry earth crying to God for water is never satisfied unless it has it. Water is a symbol of the fullness of the Holy Spirit for soul winning. Fruitfulness of the earth is dependent upon the rain from heaven. The earth cannot bless apart from showers of rain. Even so Christians cannot bring forth fruit unto God apart from the Spirit’s fullness. Soul winning power is available to all who really desire it (Eph. 3:16).

(4). The Fire That Saith Not, “It Is Enough”.

The fire in hell is never satisfied. “Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and open her mouth without measure” (Isa. 5:14). Hell and destruction are never full (Prov. 27:20). The Lord declared that hell is a place where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched (Mark 9:43-48). Hell is a place of unsatisfied longing. Hell and destruction are never full; so too the eyes of man are never satisfied. What will a drunkard do in hell when he finds no liquor there to satisfy his cravings? What will the dope addicts do who will now kill and steal to get dope?

You are not in hell. You are still in your right mind. Flee to Jesus. Remember, the four things never satisfied.
