Christ Who Lives

Christian Life Foundations

It was through a death and a resurrection that God's Rule was established among men. Through this process, Jesus ascended to sit at God's right hand. This literal experience is symbolic of the process through which we must go if we are to be “raised to sit in the heavenly realms with Christ Jesus.

while certain abstaining from “things” will naturally follow, the positive reality of God's Rule in us is most readily perceived in the change of attitude, disposition, and purpose that Paul calls the “transformation of our minds.” God's Rule is evidenced in lives characterized by love, joy, and peace. God's Rule is demonstrated in death to selfish sensitivity, and selfish ambition.

Paul said, “I am crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.” “Crucified” refers to the rejection of Self-Rule that is essential if God is to be enthroned in the Human Temple.

Death to self can't be described in terms of “things” denied. It is SELF that must be dethroned

Death to self can't be described in terms of “things” denied. It is SELF that must be dethroned. And

Thought for the week: “If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature.” 2 Corinthians 5:17, Proverbs 19:13

Therefore, what it takes to offend me will be some indication of the degree to which I have been “crucified with Christ.” And the active presence of patience, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control in my relationships will certainly be evidence that “it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.”

Religious people have set up a wide variety of standards by which “true Christians” may be identified. It’s clear to me that DEATH and RESURRECTION must be the basis of spiritual life. The example of Jesus Himself tells us that we must DIE to LIVE! That’s the bottom line. There is simply no other way to experience spiritual life.

“The active presence of patience, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control in my relationships will certainly be evidence that ‘it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.’”

Ruel D. Catlett, Preacher

“But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”

(2 Corinthians 3:18)

“And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.” (Romans 12:2)

“Behold, how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.”

Psalms 133:1
